

IAAH Congress 2018

PROGRAM, SKILLS BUILDING WORKSHOP IAAH 2018

October 3rd 2018

WORKSHOP TITLE	Training of trainers: how to prepare an information event for adolescents
RATIONALE	The way of life of modern adolescents and information opportunities for them radically differentiates young people from the generation of parents. This often leads to a denial of information necessary for adolescents about the health risks during adolescence. Finding keywords and effective methods of communication with the younger generation is the most important task of specialists working with adolescents.
Facilitator:	Krishtal Tatiana Yuryevna Candidate of Medical Sciences Head of the Department of Medical Prevention City polyclinic №54 Saint-Petersburg, Russia
Language	Russian
Training objectives	By the end of the session, participants will: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Formulate the main sections of the information event for adolescents (seminar / training, station game, action, talk show, etc.) 2. Make a step-by-step plan for the event, assess resources and needs 3. Pass the training of self-presentation and master the methodology of "information embedding".
Schedule	October 3 rd , 12.30 – 15.50